7 次の英文を読み、各問いに答えなさい

Haruko was a third-year junior high school student last year. She was looking forward to becoming a high school student but she didn't decide on her first choice of high school. She was interested in three high schools: Higashi high school, Nishi high school and Meijo high school. Higashi high school is near her house. She can walk there. (①) takes only fifteen minutes to get to the school. It was very popular among her friends. Nishi high school is famous for sports. It has ②the (strong) tennis team in Osaka. Meijo high school is a girls' school with a hundred years' tradition. Its *brass band has won a lot of prizes.

Haruko belonged to the tennis club in junior high school. She liked music and she could play *the flute. She asked herself, ③“What should I do?” It is already September but I can't *make up my mind.” So, she asked her mother for her advice. Her mother said, “How about visiting the high schools? They have open schools in October.” Haruko thought it was a good idea.

She went to the open schools of the three high schools with her mother. The students helping with the open school at Higashi high school were very kind. They *showed Haruko and her mother around the school and talked about their school life there. They said they were happy with their school. She joined in the tennis club's practice at Nishi high school. The coach of the tennis club was cheerful and kind enough to show her how to play tennis. At Meijo high school she watched the performance of the brass band. It was wonderful. She thought she wanted to play the flute with the band. She also attended an English lesson by an American teacher. She was very friendly and her class was a lot of fun.

Haruko wanted to hear her mother's opinion about the schools. She asked her mother, “Which school is best for me?” She said, “Well, each school has good points. (④) is important for you to decide by yourself because it is your future. This is the first step to becoming an adult.” Haruko thought that her mother was right. She thought hard and long about the schools and finally made up her mind. After that she studied harder for the entrance exams. In (⑤) she took the entrance exam for Meijo high school and passed it. She and her family were very happy.

Haruko is a member of the brass band at Meijo high school now. She practices the flute very hard after school every day. She is busy with her studies and her club activity but she is enjoying her school life very much. She ⑥make a lot of friends since she entered high school. She is glad she chose Meijo high school. She thought to herself, “I learned important things through preparing for entrance exams. ⑦I think I have grown up a little.” and thanked her mother in her heart.

make up my mind : 決心する show ~around... : ~に...を案内する

brass band : 吹奏楽部 flute : フルート
