日本人のマイ（Mai）とアメリカからの留学生のビル（Bill）との会話です。

Bill: What is your hobby?

Mai: My hobby is watching movies and taking pictures.

Bill: I like watching movies, too! Japan has so many anime stories. I love them! People come to Japan to enjoy different Japanese cultures. But, coming here to watch anime and enjoy Japanese anime culture is fun for me. Which titles did you watch?

Mai: Do you know ‘Suzume no Tojimari’?

Bill: No, I don’t know that!

Mai: It was created by Shinkai Makoto.

Bill: What?? Is that “Suzume”? He is well known all over the world! It became famous in America, too!

Mai: Oh, that’s great! “Suzume no Tojimari” is about earthquakes. (1) They make you scared of living in Japan. A few years ago, there was an earthquake in Osaka, too. Because of it, many people were injured. And also, 17% of the world’s earthquakes happen in and around Japan.

Bill: Wow! I didn’t know that. What can we do to protect ourselves from an earthquake?

Mai: I don’t know much about it. However, we have to prepare special bags for such disasters.

Bill: Special bags?

Mai: Such a special bag is called an “emergency bag”. Many shops sell these bags. In addition to these emergency bags, (2) (about / must / our / evacuation center / we / learn).

Bill: Where is it?

Mai: I don’t know. Let’s find it out on the internet.

Bill: Yes, let’s!

8 次の英文を読み、各問いに答えなさい。

It is 2025 now. Aiko is a second- year student at Meijo high school. This is the diary she wrote last year.

April 8th

I went to the entrance ceremony today. I was a little nervous but also very excited. Meijo became coeducational this year. I saw some boys (①)many girls. The school building was new, the gym was new. Everything looked new and shining. I was looking forward to becoming a high school student and making a fresh start. My friend Naomi and I were happy in new uniforms. There was a boy standing alone under a tree near the gym. Naomi said, "Let's talk to him. He looks cool!" "Oh, no! I can't do that!" I tried to stop her but she started walking to him so I followed her. We began to chat and we found that his name was Kiyoshi from the Sanitary Nursing course. Naoko was on the General Career course. I was on the Nursing and Medical course. Isn't it nice to talk without wearing a mask? I hope we can become good friends. So many things happened today and I had a good time.

June 6th

I feel tired these days. Because I have to get up ② early than before, I am sometimes very sleepy in class. Math is too difficult for me to understand. I haven't joined any club yet, so I have nothing to do after school. I asked Naomi, "Do you enjoy school life?" "Yes, I am a member of the home economics club. I enjoy cooking with the members. I want to be a cook in the future" she answered.

July 5th

The tests were over. I didn't do well on them. My mother is a nurse. She is working very hard to help sick people. I respect her very much. ③(a nurse /to become /my dream /is / like her .) I know I must study very hard for it. However, I don't feel like studying. I asked Kiyoshi, "Why do you want to become a nurse?" He said, "Well, five years ago, my grandmother caught coronavirus. She almost died, but thanks to the doctors and nurses, she got well. Especially, one nurse took care of her very well. So, I decided to become a nurse." He also said, "To become a nurse, I need to be healthy and strong. So, I joined the basketball club and practice every day." Both Naomi and Kiyoshi were working hard for their future.

④ I felt I was left behind.

July 10th

I had a meeting with my homeroom teacher. I told him about my problem. He listened to me and gave me some advice. "What's your favorite subject?" he asked. "Well, English." I answered. "Then why don't you study English hard? It is necessary for nurses. If you can do better in one subject, you will get confidence." he said. Maybe he is right. I will try.

October 11th.

In the English textbook, I found a very interesting story. It was a story about a Japanese sculptor working on Sagrada Familia in Spain. He said, "The only path to your dream is living each moment to the fullest. Your life is a work in progress that is built with passion every day." I was moved by his words very much. His positive way of thinking encouraged me. I will find something I love and enjoy my life in high school!! I will study harder, I promise.

Aiko is now preparing for the school festival as the president of the student council. She is going to take EIKEN next year. She is very happy at Meijo.
